A Westside dock for shipping heir

Paris Latsis, Greek shipping heir and onetime fiance of Paris Hilton, has purchased a newly built, three-story, Beverly Hills area house for $9.2 million.

It has five bedrooms and 5½ bathrooms in close to 7,000 square feet. The home has panoramic views, from downtown to the ocean, a courtyard entrance that opens to a glass-and-stainless-steel staircase, walls of glass, a bar, a breakfast area and a media room.

Vince Murphy built the house. Mike Mueller Design Inc. completed the interiors.

Barry Peele and Alexis Valentin Ramos of Sotheby's International Realty in Beverly Hills had the listing. Latsis was represented by Valerie Fitzgerald and Kathy Villa of Coldwell Banker, Beverly Hills, and Stephen Shapiro of Westside Estate Agency, Beverly Hills.
